

Financial Literacy

Teach women fiscal responsibility.

Banking

Help a woman learn about the banking system.

$50

For many immigrants, taking advantage of a reliable banking system is a new experience. With your help, a woman can learn how to manage a checking account, use an ATM, and balance a bank statement.

Shopping

Help a student learn how to make smart buying choices.

$25

Stretching the dollar is important, and learning to compare prices and options is integral. Your gift gives a woman the knowledge to get the most for her family.

Saving

Help teach the advantages of setting a bit aside each month.

$25

Saving money for unforeseen events or important purchases is a big part of fiscal conscientiousness. With your help, a woman will learn how to plan for and protect her future by opening and maintaining a savings account.

Credit

Help a student understand the importance of credit and using it wisely.

$25

Establishing and maintaining good credit is an important part of fiscal responsibility but can also be very confusing. Your gift gives a woman important information that is crucial to her financial health.

